

I have had telemarketing calls drop to just about nothing since the enactment of the law, and would be very upset if this law is overturned.